

Title 99—Sample Regulations

Revised as of April 1, 1996

CHAPTER I—DEPARTMENT OF SAMPLE AFFAIRS

PART 900—WIDGET MANUFACTURING RECORDS

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 900.1 Scope.

- (a) This part applies to every person who manufactures widgets for sale in the sample jurisdiction.
- (b) A person who only repairs widgets is not a manufacturer for purposes of this part.

§ 900.2 Definitions.

- (a) Widget means a small mechanical device intended for consumer use.
- (b) Manufacturer means a person who makes, assembles, or packages widgets.

Subpart B—Records

§ 900.3 Record retention.

- (a) Each manufacturer shall keep batch records for the period listed in the table below.
 - (1) Records shall be legible and stored at the manufacturing site.
 - (2) Records shall be made available to the inspector on request.

Record type	Retention period
Batch records	2 years
Complaint files	3 years
Training logs	1 year

Table 1—Retention periods by record type

§ 900.4 Labeling.

(a) Every widget package shall bear the manufacturer name and a batch number.

(b) A manufacturer that fails to comply with paragraph (a) of this section commits a prohibited act.

§ 900.5 [Reserved]